Description

Napoleon III period marquetry and lacquer secretary. The marquetry decoration is based on: cartouches, palmettes, scrolls, acanthus leaves, ears of wheat and leafy motifs, all enhanced on thread. The sides are enhanced on boxwood fillet frame. The decoration of the facade is present on the uprights, drawers, the tabletop and on the flap. The turned toupée base enhances the case. The white Carrara marble adds a little more contrast. The contrast is sublimated by the interior in standard raised on red leather. Delivery possible not included in the price.
