Description

This painting is an oil on cardboard from the early 20th century. It depicts a seascape. The scene shows a stretch of coastline where waves crash against the shore. In the foreground, the sea is rendered in warm, reddish tones, contrasting with the white foam of the waves. On the right are some rocky masses, and on the horizon, the blue sea and the cloudy, slightly veiled sky. The whole is simple and uncluttered, with a rather poetic atmosphere, particularly thanks to the unusual reds and browns for the sea, which give the painting an expressive tone. Dimensions: 33 x 24 cm 13 × 9.5 inches
