Description

Rare set of three almost identical Art Deco buckles, highly original, entirely covered with a black and white enamel decoration. The surface, enlivened by contrasting geometric motifs, perfectly illustrates the characteristic aesthetics of Art Deco, where pure lines and sharp color contrasts highlight the modern elegance of the period. Two buckles are exactly identical, while the third - shown in the center of the photo - differs by a subtle detail: the end of the stylized ribbon is black, whereas in the other two it is white. These refined accessories represent an authentic testimony to French taste of the 1920s-1930s. Condition: very good, with no chips to the enamel.
