Description

This Kilim, having undergone a thorough cleaning and careful inspection by our experts at the Galerie Lissier artisan workshop, is now ready to adorn your interior! Superb JIJIM kilim rug, handmade in the mid-20th century (circa 1940). This antique model is distinguished by its long and narrow format (70x260 cm), ideal as a hallway rug or to dress up a rectangular space. Its refined geometric decoration, dominated by deep red tones and traditional patterns, testifies to the weavers' craftsmanship. Woven in wool, it combines robustness and authenticity, offering both decorative and historical value. A unique piece, full of character, perfect for lovers of antique kilims and art textiles.
