Description

Spectacular and large lyre-shaped clock in white Carrara marble with rich gilded bronze ornamentation (finely chiseled and with beautiful original gilding). The white enamel dial has black enameled Arabic numerals and garlands of flowers. The lyre is surmounted by a radiant neo-classical mask from which escapes a bronze pendulum symbolizing the strings of a lyre, itself connected to a rhinestone string. Napoleon III period , Louis XVI style, a French work circa 1860 - 1870. The lyre clock is in working order. Very beautiful execution ! Height = 57 cm
