Description

Interesting and rare travel item, a writing case, called Baradelle. Made of green Morocco leather and covered cardboard, by unrolling it, we access a hinged box, containing a covered cardboard case, with several compartments. One is dedicated to the inkwell, another to the feathers, another for the solid ink, another surely for the acamanite sprinkler, to dry the ink. The large part all in leather reveals a large pocket, to store the paper. Beautiful antique item, genuine ! Good general condition, some pronounced wear, clearly visible on my detailed photos, please look at them carefully, I am not hiding anything! European working, probably French, dating from the first part of the 19th century. Dimensions: Closed 27cm x 5.2cm Diam. Interior Cartonnage: 5.2cmSHIPPING CONDITIONS BELOW
