Freemason's Sword, 18th Century.

1 200 EUR

Signature : Abraham Du Cellier

Period : 18th century

Condition : En l'etat

Material : Wrought iron

Length : 98

Description

Masonic sword with a wavy blade made of wrought iron, made by the gunsmith "Abraham Du Cellier", active in Amsterdam at the end of the 18th century. These ceremonial weapons were carried by dignitaries and officiants during symbolic ceremonies of Freemasonry.

Dealer

Le Printemps des Siècles
Antiquaire Généraliste
Mobile : 0607679767

9 Boulevard Miredames
Castres 81100