Description
-------------

Napoleon III period bracelet composed of articulated links in the general shape of a marquise, in 750/°° yellow gold (18 KT, eagle's head hallmark). The width of the links gives it a cuff format, while curved arches like buckles give it their volume. The links being openworked by this construction, this bracelet is visually airy and endowed with a particularly successful perspective effect. Each part of the links is subtly chiseled with plant motifs evoking acanthus leaves; these are very represented in Napoleon III jewelry due to the marked taste of the time for neo-classicism. This jewel is therefore very representative of its era. This bracelet is equipped with a ratchet clasp, totally hidden and invisible, with a very secure closure. It is, in principle, decorated with a safety chain. This one perfectly
