Description

Geometric Composition print from 2015. 16/30. Arches paper. Geneviève Claisse (1935-2018)Geneviève Claisse, a major figure in French geometric abstraction, devoted her entire work to the exploration of pure forms and bold colors. Encouraged early on by her great-uncle, the abstract painter Auguste Herbin, she joined the Denise René gallery in the 1960s, an emblematic place for concrete art and Op Art. Her research focuses on the circle, the triangle, and the line, worked in compositions of remarkable rigor and clarity. The chromatic contrasts, the balance between full and empty, transparency and opacity, create an immediately recognizable visual language. This lithograph perfectly illustrates her approach: a seemingly simple construction, but of great plastic and
