Description

Very rare box containing everything needed to inject a narcotic (morphine, cocaine, etc.). It includes a syringe, 3 needles, and a bottle in their specific housing. The case is made of silver-plated metal with Inca or Mayan motifs. The set is in very good condition except for two slight dents in the case. This is a very rare piece that allowed you to discreetly transport everything you need for somewhat summery meetings in the living rooms of the early 20th century.
