Description

This neoclassical-style clock, dating from the Napoleonic III era, is signed by the clockmaker "Gauthier fils à Villefranche". It features a beautiful blue-green marble base and case, with a clock face whose numerals are engraved and gilded. The top is adorned with a finely crafted, cylindrical urn with handles. The clock is embellished with finely chased, gilded bronze ornamentation.

The original mechanism remains unmodified. It strikes the hours and half-hours on an antique bell.
