Description

The creation of this impressive set consisting of a crystal bowl and two vases mounted in gilded bronze is attributed to the Cristallerie de Clichy (1842 - 1895). The crystal is supported by a sumptuous gilded bronze mount, the quality of the carving as well as its delicacy underline the richness of this composition, offering a true glimpse of the production of the French luxury industry in the second half of the 19th century. Created in 1844, the Cristallerie de Clichy-la-Garenne established itself from the beginning of the Second Empire as one of the most important French manufacturers in the production of crystal ! Unfortunately, its creations were not signed but only appeared on a label that has often disappeared today. Its numerous participations in the Universal Exhibitions that
