Niderviller Porcelain Figure Group Of Two Boys, C.1815

700 EUR

Signature : Niderviller

Period : 19th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Porcelain

Description

French hard-paste porcelain group by Niderviller, c.1815, two boys in playful struggle on a rocky base painted in bright greens and ochres. Lively modelling, warm flesh tones and crisp detailing reflect the continental taste of the period.

Marks: unmarked to factory; underside with incised No. 44. Fully glazed inner well with a dry footring, consistent with Niderviller practice in the early 19th century.

Niderviller, established 1735 in Lorraine, is represented in major museum collections and is noted for its figural groups and biscuit sculpture throughout the late 18th and early 19th
