Description

Rose Jeanne Françoise CHALEYSSIN (Lyon, 1896-1940) Portrait of a child Circa 1920 Plaster H. 31 cm Signed and dated: R. Chaleyssin / 19
Rose Chaleyssin was a Lyon sculptor active in the 1920s and 1930s. At the Salon d'Automne of 1923, the City of Lyon acquired a terracotta sculpture representing a seated woman, now in the collection of the Musée des Beaux-Arts de Lyon. In 1924, a fountain project in plaster was reproduced in the booklet for the Salon d'Automne of that year. Rose Chaleyssin was the daughter of Francisque Chaleyssin, a cabinetmaker and decorator, who ran the Maison Chaleyssin, a major furniture manufacturer in Lyon. Her husband was André Ducaroy, a famous designer of modern furniture. This charming bas-relief depicting a girl or a boy - at the time,
