Painted On Majolica Saint Joan Antide Thouret, 19th Century

250 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Terracotta

Description

Painted and enamelled majolica tile depicting Saint Joan Antide Thouret, founder of the Sisters of Charity. 19th century. size, height 30 cm Width 19 cmSaint Jeanne-Antide Thouret.She was a French nun who founded the congregation of the Sisters of Charity in 1799 in Besançon.Her congregation dedicated itself to the education of youth, the care of the sick, and the assistance of the poor, spreading throughout France, Switzerland, and Italy, particularly in Naples.She died in Naples in 1826 and was proclaimed a saint by Pope Pius XI in 1934.The busts of Saint Vincent de Paul and Saint Jeanne-Antide Thouret are preserved in the cloister of the Regina Coeli Monastery in Naples, where she retired and died.

Dealer

Antichita' Taddei Gilberto
arte antiquariato XVII XVIII XIX SECOLO
Tel : +39 3313821818
Mobile : +39 3313821818

via masini 135
Castelfiorentino 50051