

Pair Of Lamps Made From Carved Oak Architect's Balusters - 19th Century.

1 200 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Solid wood

Description

Charming pair of lamps made from sculpted oak architect's balusters, Louis XIV style. The shafts feature a decoration of acanthus leaves, fluting and Ionic capitals, inspired by classical ornamental vocabulary. Entirely new electrical assembly (sockets, cable, plug and switch). The custom-made lampshades were made by L'Esprit des Lumières, in a refined floral fabric that perfectly matches the warm shade of the oak. An elegant creation combining elements of ancient architecture and contemporary use. Period: 19th century Height of base: 60 cm Total height: 89 cm Electrification: new Lampshade: creation L'Esprit des Lumières

Dealer

M&N Antiquités

Antiquaires généralistes

Mobile : 06 64 02 14 84

3 grande rue

La Chapelle-sur-Oreuse 89260