Description

Small Cabinet or chest of drawers in Renaissance style, from the 17th century, often used at the time as a Jewelry Box. It is in Marquetry of Light Wood Circles on a Dark Walnut Wood Background. It opens on the Front with 3 Drawers covered with small Red Tortoiseshell Panels. The Lock Entrances are original in gilded brass, with Small Pennes, typical of the 17th Century, which close with a Key. This Pretty Cabinet of Curiosity measures 43 CM in Length, 25 CM in Width and 27 CM in Height. It is in very good used condition. In summary: This is a small cabinet of drawers (or cabinetmaker's box), in Baroque or Spanish/Italian Renaissance style, often intended to contain precious objects, jewelry or important papers.
