Description

Elegant lidded ceramic vase, made in Italy in the 1930s by the Vibi Torino manufactory, renowned for its Art Déco creations.

The surface features a deep green glaze with matte black details and two ochre-colored relief figures inspired by classical art:

on one side, a warrior/hero figure with helmet, shield, and spear;

on the other side, a male figure with lion skin and club, probably Hercules.

The two black side handles and the lid with knob complete the composition, giving the piece balance and presence.

It is in excellent overall condition, with minor signs of age visible.
