Description

Charming pair of polychrome porcelain figurines from Saxony, from the beginning of the 20th century. Our two porcelains represent a couple of characters elegantly dressed in the taste of the 18th century. They are each seated on a mound resting on a rockery-shaped terrace decorated with flowers in relief. The woman holds on her knees a hat decorated with a beautiful flower garland, the man holds a basket filled with fruit and flowers. Our two figurines are in very good condition, we note a tiny lack on the petal of a flower in the basket (see photo). Our two porcelains come from the Sitzendorf factory in Thuringia in German Saxony, they bear under their bottoms the crowned "S", trademark registered from 1850 until today. dimensions: woman: height 11.8 cm width 6 cm depth 6.3 cm
