Description

Early 19th century chest of drawers in beautiful light walnut, with a curved front featuring 3 molded drawers on a scalloped lower crosspiece, recessed uprights on curved legs, fir interiors, molded top in bec de corbin. Minimal restorations, jointing of the rear legs. Very pleasant piece of furniture due to its color, its proportions, and its reasonable dimensions. Old locks in working order, bronze elements formerly added. Invoice certificate given to the buyer. We are at your disposal for any additional information or request for photos. - Visible in our gallery in Lille on 400 m2, open afternoons from Wednesday to Friday or by appointment
