Description

"liturgical object, tabernacle light" Authentic object of the liturgical ritual: a red glass chalice can receive an oil wick which will remain watching over the tabernacle, until a sacristan comes to renew it. This red light, in the half-light of a church plays the role of bitter for the sailor, it focuses your prayers, your thoughts and your supplications towards the shepherd. The light near the tabernacle evokes the presence of consecrated hosts ready for the faithful....sign of the presence of Christ. The chain receptacle is made of brass, it is decorated with bunches of grapes, pretty symbol of life. bronze frame decorated with three stylized dragons, brass chains, pretty red glassware, the whole in perfect condition total height: 73 cm
