Description

Jean Louis Toutain "Clown with bandoneon"
Bronze sculpture signed Toutain on the back and numbered EAI / EAIV Perfect condition - With certificate of authenticity from the artist French sculptor from Toulouse, known for his works full of roundness, humor and humanity. Among his recurring themes are family, couples, children and musicians. His sculptures of musicians - saxophonists, guitarists, accordionists or singers - convey all the vitality of movement and the complicity between the characters. We find his characteristic style: rounded volumes, expressive gestures, attitudes full of life. These works are exhibited in many cities in France, notably in Toulouse (Jardin du Capitole), Albi, Castres or Cahors.
