Description

Gaétan de Percin - 18k gold ring (750?) featuring a central oval openwork motif in amourette wood. The yellow gold mount, very original in design, is formed by two gold parts stylizing a horse bit. French work circa 1970. Bearing the eagle head hallmark for 18-carat gold and the partially worn maker's mark of Gaétan de Percin, who notably worked for Hermès and created numerous equestrian-inspired jewelry pieces. Please note minimal wear on the interior part of the band, invisible when worn. Ring size 50FR - 5.5US Motif dimensions: 2.2 x 2.2 cm Gross weight: 10.15 grams
