Description

Superb sterling silver pitcher signed TIFFANY & CO. From the famous "M" period (Edward C. Moore, artistic director between 1878 and 1891). The hallmarks are perfectly legible: TIFFANY & CO / STERLING SILVER / 4½ GILLS / 10869 / M / 1833. This series is typical of Tiffany's work at the end of the 19th century, characterized by sober and elegant silverwork. The number "M" indicates the Moore period, highly sought after by collectors. Rare collector's item from a major American silversmith house Total weight: 418 g · Capacity: 4½ gills (~0.57 liters) · Material: 925/1000 sterling silver · Condition: Good · Dating: circa 1880
