Description

Magnificent pair of painted and glazed majolica pourers. Both pourers feature an ovoid body resting on a tall foot, topped by a long neck ending in an elaborate, boat-shaped spout. The pourers have an elaborate, sinuous wyvern-shaped handle, complete with a long neck, wings, and legs, while the bipartite tail extends above a mask with a male face. The splendid historiated decoration covers the entire surface of the vases, extending vertically from the ground to the sky, centering on marvelous mythological scenes. These are objects of great charm and elegance, capable of tastefully decorating any space with a touch of antiquity. Manufactured in Urbino, second half of the 19th century. Dimensions: H x DM 47.5 x 18cm
