Description

This oil on panel entitled "La Pause d'Hiver" is characteristic of the work of Alain Thomas. A representation of a clown in the snow. Alain Thomas, born 1942 in Nantes, is recognized in the French contemporary art world as a leader of "naïve-primitive" painting. His pictorial universe, colorful and imbued with poetry, is composed of animals from all over the world. Exhibited with success in Paris, New York, Tokyo... His very personalized style has allowed him in more than forty years of career to illustrate about twenty works including several children's stories, monographs, bestiaries and bibliophile books. All is in good condition. We note minimal scratches on the frame, barely visible and a minimal lack of paint at the very bottom. Our photos allow you to appreciate the quality of the work. For the
