Description

This miniature is from the end of the 18th-beginning of the 19th century. It represents a man in a frock coat, made with great finesse. No signature. The rim is gold or gold-plated, we were unable to identify a hallmark, but given the quality we believe it is gold. There is hair work at the back. We can imagine that the hair belonged to this man. Some wear and rubbing towards the bottom. We note that the miniature may have been cut on the sides. The hair work is natural, untouched. For the condition, please detail the photos. Do not hesitate to zoom in. The photos are an integral part of the description.
