Description

In a case of quiet refinement, this exquisite coffee service by Haviland Limoges embodies the timeless elegance of French domestic ritual. Comprising a gracefully contoured sugar bowl and a milk jug with fluid lines, each piece is adorned with hand-painted bouquets of peonies and bellflowers in tender hues of rose, lilac, and soft green, delicately framed in gold on a luminous ivory ground. The porcelain, stamped LIMOGES FRANCE and Porcelaine peinte à la main Paris-Style, reflects the technical mastery and decorative finesse for which Haviland has been celebrated since the 19th century. Curved handles, perfectly fitted lids, and gilt-edged rims speak to a discreet yet assured sophistication. Preserved in its original box with protective papers, and never used, this ensemble
