Description

Elegant pair of vintage side tables from Maison Jansen. Their refined structure combines bronze and brass, with gunmetal patinated uprights, characteristic of this prestigious house. The tops are made of thick glass. The upper mirror is clear, while the lower mirror is in gilded églomisé for a most successful effect. The finely crafted details, notably the pine cone-shaped tips, demonstrate a beautiful quality of manufacture, typical of 1970s design. These tables can be used as sofa corners, bedside tables, or occasional tables, bringing a chic and timeless touch to any interior. Excellent overall condition, some slight signs of wear related to age.
