

Ambrotype Post-mortem, Father And Infant Circa 1870 Vintage Photograph

500 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Description

Postmortem of a father holding his infant in his arms. The infant's eyes are opened with highlights in the pure post-mortem tradition. The ambrotype is circled by Pinbeck in its Union Case.

Photographs of recently deceased relatives were part of American and European culture in the 19th century. They allowed the family to keep a visual memory of the deceased and participated in the grieving process. They were a precious possession.
