Lamp - Marble Statue Of A Roaring Tiger

4 500 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Marble

Description

A lamp featuring a carved marble tiger sculpture. The figure has glass eyes. The marble is veined in black, with a two-tone matte and polished finish. This impressive tiger statue is carved from fine marble, whose rich patterns and texture give depth and liveliness to the work. It depicts the tiger in all its strength, ready to attack. The meticulous treatment of its muscles, tense body, and facial expression emphasize not only the craftsmanship of the creator, but also the dynamism and energy of the animal. The tiger's pose is full of tension, with one paw forward and sharp claws indicating that it is ready to pounce and attack. Finely crafted details, such as sharp teeth and piercing eyes, give the statue a realistic appearance. The marbled pattern that runs across the entire surface of the statue creates a unique

Dealer

Antik.Salon
Antique and vintage furniture
Tel : +33658137757
Mobile : +33662102880

Saint-Hippolyte-de-Montaigu 30700

play of colors and structures, making each view of the work unique. The statue is attached to a pedestal imitating rock, which enhances the whole and gives it increased dynamism. Total dimension 145/63/42 cm Tiger 38/60/42 cm