Description

Lovely little cast iron fireback, crowned with a small cross. Delicate, typically Gothic motifs and scrolls are carried by small pilasters and columns, between which climbing plants join the arcades. In the center, a woman dressed in a traditional peasant headdress seems to be carrying a bowl. Is she bringing food or drink to the person whose face can be seen beneath the bowl? Everyone is free to imagine the scene. Probably dates from the 19th or even 18th century. Ideal for decorating a small niche, or fixed to a wall like a painting or why not, a credenza... dimensions: width = 35 cm; height = 45 cm; thickness = 1.5 cm. EUR300 including tax to take away as is. VAT recoverable. Delivery or shipping available on quote
