Description

France / 1880 / mirror / walnut / Antique / Rustic
Antique wall mounted mirror in warm walnut wood hand crafted in the late 19th century in France. The frame has a simple, rectangular design with a distinctive wood grain pattern. The mirror glass shows some signs of age, such as dark spots, which is common in antique mirrors. The wood shows some old treated worm holes. Walnut wood was highly prized during this period for its durability and luxurious appearance, making it an excellent choice for fine furniture and decorative pieces. This is a beautiful example of late 19th-century craftsmanship and design. Sober and interesting by its size, this mirror will blend in with your interior decoration while bringing a warm and elegant touch. Dimension mirror: 66 cm x 48 cm
