Marble Garden Sheath Topped With A Cup

3 700 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Marble

Description

White Carrara marble garden sheath, resting on a square-section leafy base. The sheath has a beadwork framing a scraper decoration enriched with lambrequins. This decoration is topped with a garland of stylized foliage and fruit around a sculpted oval. On this sheath is placed a heavily molded base which receives a shallow cup. Worked on all sides, it certainly fit into the park of a beautiful property. 19th century work in the Louis XIV style. Good general condition; note some accidents and lack of use (see photos). Total height: 150.5 cm. Diameter of the cup: 50 cm. Width of the base: 32.5 cm.
