Description

Fine, well-crafted silver cross, in the 19th century neo-Gothic style. A bail is present at the top of the cross. Adorned with four fleurs-de-lis in its center, and the famous symbol of the Hospitality of Our Lady of Lourdes. Not hallmarked, but undoubtedly silver due to its fineness, color, and weight (72g). Free shipping for mainland France. Contact by email preferred. I remain at your disposal for further information or additional photos.
