Description

BACCARAT - "Renaissance" Boxed Set of Six Champagne Flutes, created in 1959. Presented in a case of elegance and tradition, Baccarat unveils this sumptuous original box containing six champagne flutes from the iconic Renaissance model. Heirs to a centuries-old crystal-making heritage, these pieces embody the very essence of French luxury, where every curve and every gleam celebrates the art of entertaining. Cut from the purest crystal, the flutes feature a slender silhouette enhanced by finely sculpted stems, evoking the grandeur of the 16th century. The Renaissance model, prized by collectors and discerning enthusiasts, stands out for its perfect balance between discreet opulence and timeless refinement. Offered in its original presentation box, this ensemble is a rare find--ideal for elevating special occasions or enriching a private collection. The pristine condition of the glasses reflects meticulous preservation, meeting the highest standards of excellence. A tribute to exceptional crystal, to the art of living, and to Baccarat's storied legacy. The Renaissance model is no longer available in Baccarat France's online collection. Each flute bears the acid-etched Baccarat signature beneath the base. Less common than the Harcourt or Masséna models, yet highly sought after for its classical elegance. Dimensions: Height 17.5 cm, Base Diameter 6.8 cm Condition: Perfect, with no scratches, chips, or crystal wear--each flute a celebration in itself.
