Description

Delightful pair of small watercolor paintings on paper, in gilded wooden frames with mats and glass covers. The paintings depict mounted cuirassiers crossing a clearing. These paintings demonstrate great pictorial mastery in the use of watercolor and the striking realism of the technique. This pair of paintings will add a touch of class and history to any space. Made in Piedmont (Northern Italy), probably by De Albertis, late 19th century. Dimensions: H x W x D overall 32 x 42 x 2cm; H x W work alone 13.5 x 23cm
