Description

François Reynaud (20th century) - View of Fort Saint-Jean in Marseille Superb oil on wood signed by the Marseille painter François Reynaud (1825-1909), representing Fort Saint-Jean and the entrance to the Old Port of Marseille. The composition is bathed in a soft Mediterranean light, enlivened by a white sail gliding over the shimmering reflections of the sea. The warm hues of the port contrast harmoniously with the pastel sky, typical of the artist's luminous style. Period wooden frame, in beautiful condition.
