

Pendant Whistle, Lobi People, Burkina Faso

650 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Height : 10 cm

Description

Rare copper alloy pendant whistle. It has a traditional shape that we find in the wooden whistles of the Voltaic region. It is decorated on one side with a representation of a scorpion and on the other with a crocodile. Height: 10 cm

Patina of use and old oxidation. First half of the 20th century. Lobi people, Burkina Faso

Provenance: Norbert Boutet collection Sold with its base

Dealer

Curiositas

Arts premiers, archéologie

Mobile : 0637773819

Ternand 69620