Description

Beautiful mahogany and flamed mahogany workbench on oak and softwood. It opens on the front with two stacked drawers, one of which is decorated with several compartments of different sizes. It rests on four molded and scalloped legs, assembled to a turned column. This small piece of furniture of beautiful proportions will easily find its place against a wall or in the middle of a room, the four sides having the same finishes. Very good condition, the keys are present but the locks do not work. English manufacture from the mid-19th century. W/D/H: 52 X 43 X 75 cm.
