Description

Magnificent orientalist oil on canvas, signed Louis Cros and dated to the early 20th century. This work of great pictorial finesse immerses us in the heart of an oriental landscape bathed in golden light. It reveals a scene full of charm and escape: slender palm trees, lush vegetation, silhouettes in traditional dress, and an oriental city in the background, dominated by a minaret that stands out elegantly in the soft evening light. The balanced composition, richness of detail, and mastery of lighting are testament to the artist's talent, who successfully captures the warmth and poetry of an oriental sunset. Original canvas, not relined - beautiful authentic patina, carefully preserved. Careful shipping or hand delivery possible.
