Description

Superb animated countryside scene depicting a young shepherd couple and their herd, consisting of a cow and goats, walking along a dirt track. The artist illuminates the scene from behind, creating interesting light effects and bringing the painting to life! The painting technique leans towards impressionism, with a focus on texture, which is characteristic of the artist. Oil on panel, signed and dated 1902. Period frame. On the reverse, sales and framer's label. Cleaned and re-varnished by a professional. Frame re-gilded with gold leaf. Size: H 40cm x W30cm - H 80cm x W70cm Belgian school, dated 1902. Plumot produced several paintings featuring the same characters. Litér: Plumot was an interior and animal painter, specialising in lively landscapes with sheep and goats. He painted mainly in the
