Description

Interesting cotton trousseau composed for a baby in 1910. It is quite complete and includes - three lace bibs - two hats to tie (one winter and one summer) - three worked shirts (one summer, one mid-season with a small lace tear on the wrist and one winter) - a simple shirt (a very small "P" embroidered in red and some very small rust dots) - a light dress with a lace collar - a bottom garment - a Sunday or christening dress in thick fabrics. This layette was made in 1910, it will be sent in its original cardboard box. Please note: this set is in good general condition. The fabric is very white. This set has either been worn very little or has been treated with the greatest care. Please look at the photos and read the description. Shipping costs for France (by tracked Colissimo) are 10 euros, please contact us for all other
