Description

Pair of bedside tables by David Lange from the 1970s/80s in black Daquacryl and opening with two drawers. Good general condition, slight signs of use. Dimensions: H 46 W 61 D 43 cm Since 1969, David Lange has been a reference in the field of designer furniture, specializing with the turn of the century in methacrylate furniture.

Today this company works with the prestigious Roche Bobois brand. David Lange has created a unique manufacturing process, Daquacryl, which allows for a high-gloss finish. Made from PMMA (polymethyl methacrylate), Daquacryl is non-porous, flexible and transformable under high temperatures and allows for an appearance of unparalleled brilliance. Very easy to maintain, resistant to shocks and wear over time
