Description

Discover this magnificent terracotta sculpture titled "Jour de fête," a work by the talented Rubens Capaldo (1908-1997). This terracotta sculpture from L'Isle-Adam captures a moment of pure joy and carefreeness, depicting a circle of country children. The children, dressed in bonnets and clogs, appear to be dancing and having fun, embodying the festive spirit and simplicity of rural life. The light patina of this terracotta adds a touch of softness and authenticity to this unique piece. Rubens Capaldo, born in Paris, was not only a renowned sculptor, but also a renowned painter. His talent and artistic sensitivity shine through in this work, which is reproduced in the book "Two Centuries of Ceramics from L'Isle Adam" on page 54. This prestigious mention underlines the importance of this sculpture in the
