Description

Consulate period mahogany child's armchair in finely carved solid mahogany, late 18th - early 19th century. "Cross" backrest, scrolled armrest console, turned and carved legs. Very beautiful quality of execution - a real little gem! Attributed to Georges Jacob. Upholstered with fabric from a Lyon manufacturer from the late 19th century (installed by our upholsterer), lemon yellow color. Completely restored in September 2025. The seat is suitable for a child aged 6 years or older.
