Elegant circular centerpiece in solid silver mounted on a baluster foot decorated with a central element in carved wood (probably rosewood or rosewood), resting on a stepped silver base. The marriage of polished silver and dark wood creates a refined contrast characteristic of the modernist aesthetic of the 20th century. This cup illustrates the work of high-quality manufacturing workshops. It testifies to Puiforcat's taste for creations combining sobriety of forms and nobility of materials. Dimensions: Diameter of cup 25 cm - Diameter of base 12.5 cm - Height 11 cm Materials: Solid silver 1st title 950/000 - Carved exotic wood. Condition: excellent condition, scratches from use Gross weight: 676 grams Hallmark: MINERVE Goldsmith: Master hallmark: JEAN
