Jacob Balgley

600 EUR

Signature : Jacob Balgley

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Description

Portrait of a Young Woman, 1923. Mixed media, watercolor and gouache on paper. Dimensions on view 25x18cm Dimensions with frame 40x50cm This work by Balgley is double-sided. On the back of the work, a study for the same portrait. Unsigned but listed. It was notably exhibited outside of a Balgley retrospective at the Center for Jewish Art and Culture. February 88, under the number 6. Born in 1891 in Brest Litovsk, died in Paris in 1934, Jacob Balgley received encouragement from Claude Roger-Marx and Louis Vauxcelles. The Musée du Luxembourg holds two drawings and an oil painting.

Dealer

Geoffroy Dassé Antiquités
Antiquaire Généraliste
Mobile : geoffroy:0682832605

35 rue jules barni
Mers-Les-Bains 80350