Description

Large minister's desk inkwell in Boulle marquetry (blackened wood and brass) richly decorated with chiseled bronze and mercury gilt in the corners. It includes 3 square compartments and a large rounded one. Beautiful Louis XIV style decoration, very bur, in the fashion of the 1680s. Our inkwell is a production of the Napoleon III period, mid-19th century around 1850. Large format piece, to place on a flat desk. Very pure in the Louis XIV style, a perfect complement for a late 17th early 19th century decor. Very good condition, no lack of decoration, no accident. Length: 33.5cm Width: 22.5cm Height: 6.5cm
