Description

17th century collector's cabinet of Italian or Spanish origin. Cabinets were used to store the most precious possessions, jewelry, collections, documents... and were the most personal furniture of the owners. Ebony, rosewood and blackened wood. This delightful piece of furniture opens with 12 drawers on the front, and a door revealing 4 drawers. Chiseled and pierced bronze applications. Period locks, a key working on the door. The blackened wooden base is later and dates from the 19th century. Overall in good condition, some small lacks of moldings, wood chips... 17th century period for the cabinet and 19th century for the base. Delivery by carrier on pallet to the ground floor in front of your home, 300 euros in France, 1000 euros in the EU and 3000 euros rest of the world.
